

When to claim

You must lodge a claim within 3 months of the date of accident.

Note: lodge your claim within 28 days of the accident to receive early income payments if you need time off work.

This is not a full statement of the law and is not legal advice. Visit: www.legislation.nsw.gov.au. Search for Motor Accident Injuries Act 2017

What's a Green Slip?

All vehicles registered in NSW are covered by compulsory third party (CTP) personal injury insurance - a Green Slip.

Green Slips provide benefits and support for people injured in a motor accident.

The information here applies to accidents on or after 1 December 2017.

To find out more visit www.sira.nsw.gov.au

New benefits for injured people from 1 December 2017

We can help you with your claim

Call or email CTP Assist

1300 656 919
ctpassist@sira.nsw.gov.au

Have you been injured in a motor accident in NSW?

You're covered

Green Slips have got you covered.

Your ambulance and public hospital treatment are covered by CTP Green Slip insurance.

What you can claim

Regardless of who caused the accident, you can claim up to 6 months of:

- medical and treatment expenses
- weekly income payments if you need time off work
- domestic and personal care services if you need help at home.

What to do next

Seek medical treatment and request a certificate of fitness from your doctor.

Report the accident to police within 28 days.

Find out which insurer you will be claiming from. CTP Assist can help.

Notify the insurer to get access to initial benefits. CTP Assist can help

Lodge an Application for personal injury benefits with the insurer within 3 months.

Early treatment

After you notify the insurer you can request early treatment if you need it (within 28 days) before lodging a claim.

This includes:

- one doctors visit
- two treatment sessions, such as physiotherapy.