Subject: RE: Submission invitation/reminder: Tony Fenwick | National OH&S Manager, PFD Food

Services Ptv Ltd

Hi

Please see below my comments.

PFD has formed a great partnership with Icare and their representatives particularly when it comes to some of the preventable strategies that they have implemented to help us within our safety Journey. This includes the safety culture survey as well as the wearable tech that we are about to roll out to identify manual handling risks.

I have found them to be professional and willing to assist and in the case of the culture survey, happy to go that extra mile which has allowed us to go national and not just NSW. In particular I would like to acknowledge who has been implemental in help us with the survey as and when needed.

Because of this relationship I have happy to work with ICare for all safety initiatives and Allianz when it comes to claims management.

Hope this helps

Regards

National OH&S Manager
