

10 May 2016

State Insurance Regulatory Authority
CTP Review
CTP_Review@sira.nsw.gov.au

Dear Sir/Madam,

Review of the NSW Motor Accidents Compulsory Third Party (CTP) Scheme

NSW Young Lawyers has had the opportunity to review the comprehensive submission, dated 6 May 2016, of The Law Society of New South Wales in response to the above Review.

NSW Young Lawyers fully endorses the submission of The Law Society of New South Wales.

NSW Young Lawyers is a division of The Law Society of New South Wales. NSW Young Lawyers supports practitioners in their professional and career development in numerous ways, including by encouraging active participation in its 16 separate committees, each dedicated to particular areas of practice. Membership is automatic for all NSW lawyers under 36 years and/or in their first five years of practice, as well as law students. NSW Young Lawyers currently has over 15,000 members.

NSW Young Lawyers looks forward to working with you to improve the fairness and efficiency of the CTP scheme in the future, and eagerly await the outcome of the consultation.

Sincerely,

Renée Bianchi | President
NSW Young Lawyers | The Law Society of New South Wales