

WORKPLACE INJURY MANAGEMENT AND WORKERS COMPENSATION (INDEPENDENT CONSULTANTS FEES) ORDER 2022

under the

Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998

I, Adam Dent, Chief Executive, State Insurance Regulatory Authority, make the following Order pursuant to section 339 of the Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998.

Dated this 7th day of December 2021

Adam Dent
Chief Executive
State Insurance Regulatory Authority

1. Name of Order

This Order is the Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation (Independent Consultants Fees) Order 2022.

2. Commencement

This Order commences on 1 January 2022.

3. Definitions

In this Order:

the Act means the Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998.

the Authority means the State Insurance Regulatory Authority as constituted under section 17 of the State Insurance and Care Governance Act 2015.

GST means the Goods and Services Tax payable under the GST Law.

GST Law has the same meaning as in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth).

Independent Consultant means a chiropractor, osteopath, physiotherapist or psychologist approved by the Authority to provide an Independent Consultation in the NSW workers compensation system.

Independent Consultation includes a:

- i. review where the treating allied health practitioner requests specialised or expert assistance from an Independent Consultant.
- ii. Stage 1 review of the treatment/management provided by the allied health practitioner for the purpose of determining whether treatment/service provision is reasonably necessary. Consultation with the treating practitioner is not required for a Stage 1 review.
- iii. Stage 2 review of the treatment/management provided by the allied health practitioner for the purpose of determining whether treatment/service provision is reasonably necessary. Consultation with the treating allied health practitioner is required for a Stage 2 review.
- iv. Stage 3 review of the treatment/management provided by the allied health practitioner for the purpose of determining whether treatment/service provision is reasonably necessary. Examination of the worker and consultation with the treating allied health practitioner is required for a Stage 3 review.

Telehealth services means delivery of examinations video or telephone by Independent Consultants. Consultations would be inclusive of any electronic communication to support the delivery of the treatment service. Independent Consultants must consider the appropriateness of this mode of service delivery for each worker on a case-by-case basis and be satisfied client outcomes are not compromised. Telehealth services must be consented to by all parties – the worker, Independent Consultant and insurer. Independent Consultants are responsible for delivering telehealth services in accordance with the principles of professional conduct and the relevant professional and practice guidelines to ensure the safety, appropriateness and effectiveness of the service.

Unreasonably late attendance means that the worker or interpreter arrives unreasonably late, to the degree that a full examination is prevented from being conducted.

Working days means Monday to Friday (excluding public holidays).

4. Application of Order

This Order applies to independent chiropractic, osteopathy, physiotherapy or psychology consultant services provided on or after the commencement date of this Order, whether it relates to an injury received before, on or after that date.

5. Maximum Fees for Independent Consultants

- (1) For the purposes of section 339 of the Act, the maximum hourly fee for the provision of services by an Independent Consultant in connection with a claim for compensation or an appearance as a witness in proceedings before the Personal Injury Commission or a court in connection with a claim for compensation is as set out in Schedule A.
- (2) An Independent Consultant may charge a cancellation fee specified in item IIN112 where a worker provides 2 working days' notice or less of cancellation, fails to attend their scheduled appointment, or the worker (or interpreter) attends unreasonably late preventing a full examination being conducted.
- (3) The incorrect use of any item referred to in this Order can result in the Independent Consultant being required to repay monies that the Independent Consultant has incorrectly received.
- (4) Telehealth services are to be billed according to the appropriate items IIN310 and IIN311.

6. Goods and Services Tax (GST)

- (1) Services provided by an Independent Consultant are subject to GST.
- (2) An amount fixed by this Order is exclusive of GST. An amount fixed by this Order may be increased by the amount of any GST payable in respect of the service to which the cost relates, and the cost so increased is taken to be the amount fixed by this Order. This clause does not permit an Independent Consultant to charge or recover more than the amount of GST payable in respect of the service to which the cost relates.

7. Requirements for invoices

All invoices should be submitted within 30 calendar days of the service provided and must be itemised in accordance with Schedule A and comply with the Authority's requirements for the invoice to be processed. Refer to the relevant provider page on the SIRA website - <https://www.sira.nsw.gov.au/for-service-providers/A-Z-of-service-providers>.

8. No pre-payment of fees

Pre-payment of fees for reports and services is not permitted.
