or
An Ear, Nose and Throat (ENT) Specialist listed as a trained assessor of permanent impairment on the SIRA website.
 - ii. Employ appropriately qualified staff
 - Audiologists are university graduates with tertiary qualifications in audiology and are full members, or eligible for full membership, of Audiology Australia Ltd (AudA), the Hearing Aid Audiometrist Society of Australia (HAASA) or ordinary membership of the Australian College of Audiology (ACAud).
 - Audiometrists hold a qualification from a registered training organisation, such as TAFE NSW, followed by on-the-job-training, and are members, or eligible for membership, of the Australian College of Audiology (ACAud).
 - iii. Fit and proper person with no:
 - criminal charges (other than traffic offences)
 - civil proceedings lodged against you or your practice
 - complaints lodged against you with any health services ombudsman, department or regulator.
2. Conditions of SIRA approval
 - i. Provide services in accordance with the Workers Compensation (Hearing Aids Fees) Order current at the time of service.
 - ii. Provide accurate information at all times.
 - iii. Notify SIRA immediately of any changes to the information contained in this application.
 - iv. Complete any training specified by SIRA, and accept and participate in peer and service review to uphold standards of practice and minimise complaints.
 - v. Have no conflict of interest in providing a hearing aid to the worker that will best meet their needs.
 - vi. Have no arrangement with any agency whereby a financial incentive is offered for referral of workers.
 - vii. Not use SIRA approval status for advertising purposes.
 - viii. Provide services to the worker that are consistent with advice from the worker's GP or treating medical professional.
 - ix. Accept responsibility for the accuracy of all invoices submitted and ensure only the staff listed with SIRA submit invoices.
 - x. Invoice for hearing aids in accordance with the SIRA invoice requirements.
 - xi. Acknowledge that the insurer is only liable for reasonably necessary hearing aids and hearing services provided by appropriately qualified staff. Therefore:
