Schedule A to this Order provides for maximum fees for the provision of medical or related treatment and a hearing aid by an Authority approved hearing service provider, as defined in the Order. Schedule B outlines the procedure that must be followed for provision of medical or related treatment and a hearing aid.

The incorrect use of any item referred to in this Order can result in penalties, including the hearing service provider being required to repay monies to the Authority that the hearing service provider has incorrectly received.

SCHEDULE B – The Authority's procedures for the provision of a hearing aid

Workers in NSW with hearing loss arising out of the course of their employment where employment was the main contributing factor of the hearing loss can request a hearing aid as medical or related treatment under section 60 of the Act. The procedure for obtaining a hearing aid is outlined below.

OVERVIEW

Medical support for the provision of a hearing aid

The nominated treating doctor (NTD) is to make a referral for assessment to an ENT specialist who has undertaken training in the relevant chapters of the NSW workers compensation guidelines for the evaluation of permanent impairment and is listed on the Authority's website as a trained assessor of permanent impairment (hearing).

For the purposes of prescribing hearing aids, the ENT specialist will determine:

- the level of binaural hearing loss, and
- the proportion of the hearing loss that is attributable to workplace noise, and
- whether the worker would benefit from the provision of a hearing aid.

The ENT specialist may refer the worker to an Authority approved hearing service provider for the purposes of a hearing needs assessment and quote for the supply and fitting of a hearing aid. If the ENT specialist is an Authority approved hearing service provider the specialist may complete the hearing needs assessment and quote.

Selection of hearing aid and quote

The Authority's approved hearing service provider is to complete a hearing needs assessment, select a suitable hearing aid and prepare a quote for the supply and fitting of the hearing aid, in accordance with the Authority's fees and costs set out in Schedule A. The assessment and quote are submitted to the insurer.

A quote must be forwarded to the insurer and approval must be provided by the insurer prior to the supply and fitting of the hearing aid. The quote must include:

- (a) the worker's contact details,
- (b) a full description of the hearing aid to a maximum of $2,500.00 per hearing aid,
- (c) an outline of why the hearing aid is reasonably necessary for the injured worker in overcoming the effect of the hearing impairment under section 60 of the Act including the clinical rationale for the selected hearing aid,
- (d) the audiogram the recommendations are based upon,
- (e) details of the person who provided the assessment and quote,
- (f) the hearing service provider details including ABN and the Authority's approval number
- (g) the service fee in accordance with the Workers Compensation (Hearing Aids Fees) Order 2017, including the handling and fitting fee.

Insurer approval

The insurer will make a decision on whether to approve the supply and fitting of the hearing aid. In making the decision, the insurer must consider the reported hearing needs of the worker, the quoted fee and cost.

Supply and fitting of hearing aid/s

Once approved, the worker is supplied and fitted with the recommended hearing aid for up to a 30-day trial. If the trial is successful, the hearing service provider advises the insurer and invoices for the supply and fitting of the hearing aid, in accordance with the approved quote. If the trial is unsuccessful, the provider advises the insurer and invoices for the hearing needs assessment only.

Review of hearing aid

After 12 months of use, the worker may visit the hearing service provider for a review of their hearing aid. If the worker requires ongoing use of their hearing aid, the hearing service provider will provide 12 months' supply of batteries. Following this, additional batteries and minor maintenance which is not covered by the manufacturer's warranty can be obtained from any Authority approved hearing service provider as required to the maximum fee set in Schedule A. The worker is required to sign and date the invoice for the supply of batteries or maintenance.

Request for replacement hearing aid

A request for a replacement hearing aid where:

- the hearing aid is lost or damaged and the loss or damage is not covered by warranty or other insurance, or
- the worker's hearing loss further deteriorates and the worker can no longer communicate effectively using the current hearing aid must be supported by the worker's regular general practitioner. The request can be made using the request for replacement hearing aid found on the Authority's website (see http://www.sira.nsw.gov.au/__data/assets/pdf_file/0003/76818/declaration_form_request_for_replacement.pdf).
