

Recover at work tools for employers

State Insurance
Regulatory Authority

| Publication | Description |
|---|---|
| Return to work program - information for employers | This fact sheet explains return to work programs, employer obligations under NSW law and the resources available to help. |
| Recovery at work is just good business | This fact sheet outlines the benefits available to employers when their workers recover at work following a work-related injury. |
| ‘If you get injured at work’ poster | Every employer must provide information for workers that outlines how they can notify an injury and make a claim for workers compensation. This can be done using the poster. |
| ‘There’s been a work-related incident’ flyer <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For employers • For workers | This flyer explains what you need to do when there is an incident at your workplace. |
| Standard return to work program for category 2 employers | The SIRA standard return to work (RTW) program for category 2 employers can be adopted or customised for your workplace. |
| Recover at work planning tool | You can use this tool to develop an effective recover at work plan for your worker and help meet your legislative obligations. |
| Guidelines for workplace return to work programs | These guidelines will help you develop and implement a return to work program (which is compulsory for all workplaces). |
| Workers compensation guidelines | These guidelines for workers, employers and insurers explain how the claims process works and the types of compensation available. |
| On line tools | |
| Small business assist | Tool for small employers to understand their workers compensation obligations and how to assist a worker following an injury. |
| RTW Coordination training | Self-paced modules designed to assist RTW Coordinators to perform their role in the NSW workers compensation system. |
| Workers compensation legislation | |
| Workers Compensation Act 1987 | |
| Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998 | |
| Workers Compensation Regulation 2016 | |

Disclaimer

This publication may contain information that relates to the regulation of workers compensation insurance, motor accident third party (CTP) insurance and home building compensation in NSW. It may include details of some of your obligations under the various schemes that the State Insurance Regulatory Authority (SIRA) administers. However to ensure you comply with your legal obligations you must refer to the appropriate legislation as currently in force. Up to date legislation can be found at the NSW Legislation website legislation.nsw.gov.au

This publication does not represent a comprehensive statement of the law as it applies to particular problems or to individuals, or as a substitute for legal advice. You should seek independent legal advice if you need assistance on the application of the law to your situation.

This material may be displayed, printed and reproduced without amendment for personal, in-house or non-commercial use.

Catalogue no. SIRA09068 | Website www.sira.nsw.gov.au

© Copyright State Insurance Regulatory Authority NSW 0919